

Bachelor in Pedagogy/Educational Sciences (2007, University of Bucharest); doctorate in Educational Sciences (2007, University of Bucharest). Specialization in child welfare in family and society (2005, West University of Timișoara). A master's degree in Human Resources Management (2008, University of Bucharest) and another in Educational Management and Evaluation (2005, University of Bucharest). Founding member of the Romanian Teachers' Academy Association. Areas of professional interest: learning management, classroom management, history of educational ideas, instructional assessment management, school curriculum, initial and continuing teacher training.