

Monica Moraru has a bachelor's degree in Pedagogy and a PhD in Educational Sciences. Her experience covers: Educational Counseling, Pedagogy of Primary and Preschool Education, Didactics of Counseling and Personal Development Activities, Didactics of Psychology, Research in Educational Sciences, Educational Management. Her research interests include History of Pedagogy, Educational Counseling, Psychopedagogy of Play, Pedagogical curriculum, Foundations of Pedagogy, Development of transversal skills, Initial and Continuous Teacher Training.